Greenergy

Cookies policy

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps Greenergy Fuels Holdings Limited ("we", "us", "our") to provide you with the best possible experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our site.

What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive. They are primarily used to collect standard internet log information and visitor behaviour information. This information may be used to track visitor use of a website, improve the functionality of a website or to compile statistical reports on website activity

For more information about cookies, visit:

http://www.allaboutcookies.org or http://www.cookies.org or http://youronlinechoices.eu.

You can modify your web browser not to accept cookies, and the above websites tell you how to decline cookies. However, doing so may prevent you from taking full advantage of our website, as some of our website features may not function as a result. The way in which you adjust your browser security setting varies from browser to browser.

What cookies will this website use and for what purpose?

We use the following cookies:

Functionality cookies.
These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).

Analytical or performance
These allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

You can find more information about the individual cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them in the table below.

Third party cookies

We do not share the information collected by the cookies with any third parties other than

(i) the results of the _ga cookies which are shared with Google and

(ii) all cookie information is shared with our website provider.
